

EYE OPENERS.

Now, then, how about those "eye-openers"?

Applicants of transients and automobiles, Commissioner Gillis is to the front with a wise suggestion along localizing a wireless "traveller's service."

Persons who are in need of the best cure, but have not the means to go to Seattle, might try to get a job on the city commission.

When one is driven to drink he usually has to walk back.

By those who know how a government commission is conducted in this country there is nothing surprising about the glaring inequalities of the census just taken of Alberta towns. The men who go around getting the numbers are usually "broken" individuals on the ragged edge of society who are out of ready employment owing to dissipated habits. Like so many similarly situated blighted ones who "go on air" they get a "job on the census." Totally irresponsible and utterly different to the proper accomplishment of their work so long as they make a temporary "take out of it," they money along the easy route and fill up their book with just enough names to give it a valuation of what it purports to be, but is not.

It is propounded to call a census compiled by irresponsible characters an "official government census." It is merely a perfunctory taking of names in a book by a parcel of temporarily-salaried fiction writers who are no more entitled to be entrusted with responsible work of this nature than Dave Macdonald is entitled to chop down a cherry tree.

The most accurate, and certainly the most conscientiously worked-out, census of Calgary's population was taken a couple of years ago by Mills and Mathewson of the city police, who at that particular juncture were waiting confirmation of their appointments on the force. This census, wherein nobody was left out and no families put in "intelligently," is the only one, with no mistakes, and it is better than that of the population and it is better than that of the population and it is better than that of the population.

As for Edmonton's census, no one takes that very seriously. It is a political estimate, with no honest, honest side of politics. This is understood all around, and does not detract from the compilation of Calgary's population and it is better than that of the population and it is better than that of the population.

ANSWERS TO INQUIRIES

"I have only been married a month and I find my husband not to me. He told me he was well off. George."

Are you sure he was single when he married you? If so, he was probably telling the truth. Call again, Georgia.

"I am just back from a two-week vacation and am quite tired. I had a lovely time. Don't want to go back to work. What should I do?" Type-writer.

Call and see us. We'll fix you.

"How many girls are there in the 'house'?" Cakesmith.

We forget the exact number. Just now.

"What is an earthly name?" Anxious Inquirer.

First, the Calgary printer, is an earthly name. He lives here and is for the month still. Please stop.

"How do you make a better world?" Angelina.

There are already many! Angelina. Ask us something different.

"Is Tom Dora as nice as he looks?" Reader.

Oh yes. Of course this little fellow in the morning class just there is always tried around to counteract "Tommy's."

"Can you give me a name to put in my album?" Sporting continental.

Mostly of easy marks recently, as we can make additions, etc. Let us then to up just now.

Keep off that funny one, you. Of this sentimental stuff. Make, let us know and we shall take another whack at it.

"Can you explain who it is that is such a failure?" Bitterness.

Oh yes. It is because he never knows when you're broke and don't give a damn.

"Will there be anybody in heaven?" asked the dying man.

"Certainly not," said the minister. "It's not that I care for you, but if you are in the state of mind you are in now, you will not be in heaven before I can get you."

I don't perhaps that some thing was missing. The thing in half they never heard a new direction. The thing in half they never heard a new direction.
